"In Quietness and in Confidence Shall Be Your Strength"

THE year just closed has seen the Empire pass from peace into war, and the history of the Upper Canada Bible Society for the four closing months of 1939 have shown again that people are fully aware of the importance of the part played by such an organization in times of national crises. From that day in March, 1804, when, in the face of the threat of invasion from a victorious European dictator, the Bible Society had its birth, until today, national perils have galvanized the Bible Society into action. Upon few institutions of peace are more demands made in time of war. The very threat of peril drives people to seek added strength, and so comes the Bible Society's priceless opportunity to share the Book with its ageless story of that strength which is made perfect in weakness. Through the distribution of Scripture the Society seeks to spread abroad this Book which His Majesty calls "a wholesome and strengthening influence in our national life." The ultimate responsibility for this war service is undertaken by the Parent Society in London, but this Auxiliary will pay for all Scripture used for this purpose within its territory and seek to share the general cost as well. Such an undertaking involves a very large financial undertaking and it is estimated that an additional amount equal to one-quarter of its normal income must be obtained by this Auxiliary if the responsibilities and opportunities arising from war conditions are to be met. Such service is by no means new to the Upper Canada Bible Society. A well-worn pocket Bible which came into our possession some months ago contains on a label inside the front cover the following inscription:

"Presented by the Upper Canada Bible Society to Lieut. J. Jones Bell, First Regt. Ontario Volunteers, on the eve of their departure to Red River. Bible House, Toronto, May 18th, 1870.

The intervening seventy years have in no way modified nor changed the need of those who proceed on active service, and so to them and to all who are "careful and troubled about many things" the Bible Society seeks to provide the "one thing needful"—the message of God's unchanging love and His sustaining power.

It is interesting to recall that the year just closed completes the second decade in the second century of the activities of the Upper Canada Bible Society. It began in a small way in what was then the village of York and its first meeting was held in York District School House. The meeting included such representative persons as the Hon. Chief Justice Powell, the Hon. and Rev. John Strachan (afterwards Bishop Strachan) the Hon. Chief Justice Scott, the Hon. Mr. Justice Campbell, the Attorney-General of the Province, Dr. Macaulay, Jonas Jones, Esq., the Rev. Mr. Simpson, the Rev. Mr. Cook and Jesse Ketchum, Esq. It was the last of these whose generous bequest has provided the present commodious Bible House and assured that no part of the cost of its erection or upkeep is chargeable against the gifts of contributors to the Bible Society's work. As we pass these milestones we may well look back and acknowledge our indebtedness to those who built better than they knew in those far off days.

From then until now the vicissitudes of the times have been reflected in the Bible Society's affairs, but the backward view across the century shows steady progress and development until today the Upper Canada Bible Society is one of the largest Auxiliaries of the Parent Organization in London.

The outward look on the present circumstances of the Auxiliary shows the same evidence of deep devotion to the cause of Scripture distribution. The report which follows records the efforts of some thirteen hundred branch officers, and collectors numbering many thousands, whose voluntary and faithful service makes possible the work which is done, and the contributions sent annually to the Parent Society.

The visit of their Majesties the King and Queen was a matter not only of interest, but of great importance, and an address containing an expression of loyalty and good wishes from the Bible Society throughout the Dominion was presented to them. The visit was especially significant, followed as it was by the outbreak of war later in the year, and again later on by the personal message from the King commending the Scriptures to all who serve the Empire. The well-known, and often declared interest of the Royal Family in the circulation of Scripture throughout the Empire, and indeed throughout the world, has always been an immense strength to the Bible Society's work, and probably never more so than at the present moment.

In the death of Lord Tweedsmuir the Bible Society throughout the Dominion loses not only its Patron but a warm friend of the Society's world-wide work. Both in England and in Canada Lord Tweedsmuir has gladly identified himself with the Bible Society. As the principal speaker at a Bible Society meeting held in Toronto in the Spring of 1938 Lord Tweedsmuir paid a glowing tribute to the work of Scripture distribution.

An exceptionally successful public meeting was held in Bloor Street United Church on Tuesday, May 1st, 1939, at which the principal address was delivered by the Rev. R. B. Manikam, Secretary of the National Christian Council of India, Burma and Ceylon. Dr. Manikam's address was a ringing challenge to those who have Scripture to share it with those who have it not. The meeting was presided over by the Patron of the Society, His Honour, the Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario. The Lieutenant-Governor spoke in the warmest terms of the work of the Bible Society and commended it as an undertaking of first national importance. The meeting was very largely attended, and received wide-spread comment in the press.

Late in 1938 a Committee of the Board under the Chairmanship of Rev. A. E. Armstrong, D.D., was appointed to consider measures which might encourage a wider reading of Holy Scripture throughout this Auxiliary. A series of meetings was held with the representatives of all the larger denominations, and from each was received a promise of the fullest co-operation. Selections of Scripture passages made by the denominations themselves were referred to in the various denominational publications. The Society itself published a general leaflet urging a wider reading of Scripture and providing a method for recording each chapter as read. This leaflet has been widely circulated throughout the Auxiliary through the organization of the Agency Department and the demand has been exceptionally heavy and constant. Ten thousand copies of the leaflet were printed in February and the supply was rapidly exhausted. A reprint was made in May and a further reprint in August. Over 25,000 copies of the leaflet have been provided and the demand still continues. From information received from many different sources there is no doubt whatever that this activity of the Society has been deeply appreciated, and found most useful. It is also perfectly clear that anything that the Society can do to increase the reading of Scripture itself will inevitably increase the support received for its world-wide distribution.

Having in mind the service rendered by the Bible Society in times of war, a War Emergency Fund for the Dominion was opened in the early autumn, and the fund was launched in the Upper Canada Bible Society on October 14th. It met with an immediate and generous response. At the close of the books for the year the total of the fund stood at $4,488.79, and contributions continue to come in. Many of the branches outside of the City of Toronto have not yet made their collection. The appeal for this fund will be continued therefore during the present year until collecting throughout the Auxiliary is completed. New Testaments specially bound, and containing the following message from the King, have been provided for all units in the Province which have proceeded overseas—"To all serving in my forces by sea, or land, or in the air and indeed to all my people engaged in the defence of the Realm, I commend the reading of this Book. For centuries the Bible has been a wholesome and strengthening influence in our national life, and it behooves us in these momentous days to turn with renewed faith to this Divine source of comfort and inspiration."

The Society has sustained heavy losses through death among its Vice-Presidents and Directors.

Mr. G. M. Dale first became connected with the organized work of the Bible Society as an official of Parkdale Branch and in that connection rendered most valuable service to the Society. Much of the interest in the Bible Society in that part of the city is due to his leadership and effort. Mr. Dale became a member of the Board of Directors in 1932 and was made a Vice-President in 1937.

Mr. J. M. Redmond, a resident of Parkdale, first became interested in the Bible Society through the activities of Parkdale Branch, and shared with the late Mr. G. M. Dale, President of the Branch for some years the responsibility for its aggressive and successful activities. Mr. Redmond became a Director of the Society in 1921 and for four years was Chairman of its Agency Committee. He became a Vice-President in 1929 and until failing health made such service impossible was a regular attendant at the meetings of the Board and its committees.

Rev. Robert Johnston, D.D., was connected in an active way with the work of the Bible Society, not only in this Auxiliary, but in Montreal, and in Calgary as well. Dr. Johnston's broad Christian sympathies made him a ready and effective exponent of the Society's work and our debt to him is a very great one. During the late years of his life he lived at St. Catharines where he was for some years President of the local Branch.

Rev. Canon McElheran, D.D., as Rector of St. Matthew's, Winnipeg, was for many years an active friend of the Bible Society in the Manitoba Auxiliary. Following his appointment as Principal of Wycliffe College, Toronto, in 1930, Dr. McElheran became a Vice-President of the Board of this Auxiliary, and the loyal and devoted service rendered in previous years was continued here. The Society owes much to his wise counsel and leadership, and in particular to his readiness to urge among the people of his own communion a realization of the greatness of the debt owing the Bible Society for the essential service it renders.

Between the period covered by the report and its going to press, the Society has again suffered loss through the death of officers.

Mr. G. W. Holmes, B.A., was, in point of service, one of its Senior Directors. He joined the Society in this capacity in 1912 and over a long period of years took a most active interest in its undertakings. He was for three years Chairman of its Colportage Committee. He became a Vice-President in 1922 and only failing health prevented his attendance at the meetings of the Board and its committees. His trained legal mind and his wise counsel were put unstintingly at the disposal of the Society, and any service rendered was to him a great joy.

Mr. Wm. Manson became a Director of the Society in 1924 and immediately took an active part in the Society's undertakings. His interest centered in large measure in the Colportage work, and he was Chairman of the Colportage Committee for three years. However, he gave unstintingly of his time and effort. He became a Vice-President in 1935 and up until the time of his death was prominent in the counsels and the activities of the Society.

For the service of these who have been with us, and have passed on to their reward we thank God, whose love called them to this labour. We look back with proud and grateful remembrance upon all they did, and pray that God will continually raise up those who seek to minister to a desperately needy world by sharing with all men the story of God's redeeming love.

We have lost through removal from the community the valuable services of General Carpenter, now head of the Salvation Army and resident in London. As Commissioner, and in charge of the Salvation Army work in Canada, Newfoundland and Alaska, General Carpenter spent two years in the City of Toronto, and was during that time a Vice-President of the Society. His varied experience and his wide Christian sympathies made his counsel and advice specially valuable. In the midst of a very busy life he yet took great joy in joining in the Society's effort to spread to the ends of the earth the Word of God. We shall deeply miss him, and his work will be followed by the prayer and good wishes of all who knew him here. Upon his elevation to his high office and his departure from Toronto, the Board presented him with a suitably inscribed Bible.

BEYOND OUR OWN BORDERS

In the last annual report of its world-wide work the British and Foreign Bible Society reports a total circulation of more than eleven million copies of Scripture. Nine new versions of Scripture were issued bringing the total up to 732 languages. Of the new languages five were for Africa, three for Asia, and one for Canada. The new Canadian version is the Gospel of St. Luke in the language of the Eskimo of the Western Arctic. The translator, the Venerable Archdeacon Whittaker, has been made an Honourary Life Member of the Upper Canada Bible Society. The Parent Society has now circulated Scripture in embossed type for the blind in forty forms of speech. An English Bible in embossed type contains 5,356 pages and is bound in thirty-nine separate volumes. These volumes cost $1.50 each to produce but are sold much below cost and are supplied free to the blind who are poor.

The Work throughout Canada and Newfoundland in spite of many difficulties has been encouraging. The circulation reached a total of 306,000 volumes—a small decrease on the previous year. Some twenty-five colporteurs were employed throughout the Dominion.

OUR AGENCY WORK

It will be a matter of profound thankfulness that the income from ordinary contributions within this auxiliary shows an increase over the previous year of $971.17. The significance of this increase lies not so much in its amount as in the fact that it is the sixth in succession. Since 1934 there has been a steady rise in the income received from contributors. To have had an increase of almost $1,000 in ordinary contributions and to receive in the same year over $4,500 for the special purpose of the War Emergency Fund is a testimony both to the faithfulness and devotion of the friends of the Bible Society throughout our own constituency. Individual gifts and increases in branch remittances represent often sacrificial giving and the significance of these increases should not be lost sight of.

The matter of the use of moving pictures is still in its experimental stage, but a projector has been used consistently by one of the Secretaries throughout the year and it seems at least to have been instrumental in drawing larger gatherings at Bible Society meetings. The problems connected with this type of publicity centre around the procuring of suitable films. The two so far in general use have been supplied from London, but how much London will be able to do under the present circumstances is a matter of great uncertainty. The fact seems to have been established, however, that at least in some cases, and with careful choice of films, a movie projector will become a useful adjunct to the Society's publicity undertakings.

An attempt has been made to seek wider opportunities for addressing public and high schools, and the movement has in general met with a warm reception from officials concerned.

The thanks of the Society are again due to the Women's Auxiliary both for generous financial assistance and for extremely valuable service in making the Society's work better known throughout the city of Toronto. The Women's Auxiliary has had one of the best years in its history.

COLPORTAGE WORK

Colportage work within the territory of the Upper Canada Bible Society was carried on during 1939 by five full-time colporteurs, and in addition certain institutions ministering to those "destitute of Scripture" were assisted. The policy of the Society has remained unchanged. Each colporteur is allotted a specified territory and supplied with a van in order that the area may be covered as rapidly and effectively as possible. The cost of the vans is not chargeable to the income from contributions, but is provided for by a trust fund created by the beneficence of the late Jesse Ketchum.

The usual work in the more settled areas and in the cities and towns has gone on as usual. During the summer the colporteurs were withdrawn from their regular territory in southern Ontario and visited the districts comprised by Bruce Peninsula and Georgian Bay, Muskoka to North Bay, Sault Ste. Marie and Manitoulin Island, North Bay to Cochrane and the Haliburton Highlands. These remote and sparsely settled areas include also the great silver and gold camps and present at once great difficulties and great opportunities. The colporteur's visit is often deeply appreciated and a true ministration of grace.

From all these men come stories of desperate need and many homes without copies of the Scriptures. This is the story in their reports:

"I have visited many isolated places, many expressing their appreciation of my visits. One old lady over 80 years of age, with whom I read the Scriptures and had prayer, was so grateful tears ran down her cheeks."

"A woman who had been at the mine for three years told me that they have had only one service in three years and that was held on a week night. I sold a Bible to this woman and her sister. The nearest place where a Bible can be bought is 85 miles distant and the nearest church 20 miles.

"I sold a large type Bible to an old woman who told me she had lost her Bible in a flood a few years ago. She said money was scarce, but she would not be sorry she had bought it.

At one mine site I sold at five houses without a break, including the sales of three Foreign Scriptures. The wife of the assayer of the mine bought a Bible. She told me that they did not have a Bible.

"A French woman who does not understand English bought a French New Testament and was ever so glad to get it. No one around could talk French and she was very lonely."

"In a village when noon came around, we got into the car for a little lunch, when as we were reading a few verses before again taking up our canvass, a young man stopped on his way from work for dinner, to read the lettering on the van; he inquired what sort of Bibles, etc., we sold, inviting him in beside me we began by asking what kind he used, and proceeded to place before him a copy or two. There was a rather unpleasant aroma from him and his face was rough and disfigured. On claiming to know a lot about the Bible, we silently looked to the Lord for a word for him, and we reminded this wanderer he had not been behaving very like one who was a Christian, he confessed he was away from the Lord and seemed really miserable, we spoke plainly to him and he claimed to now be restored. Urging him to never neglect for a day a prayerful reading of the Word we felt we had been a help to one on the journey of life.

"So we plod on praying we may be always found 'meet for the Master's use'."

"Again this month, I have found cases of great need of the Holy Scriptures. Many of the non-English-speaking people rejoice to receive God's Word. One day, while I stopped in a street writing a letter, an Italian woman seeing the printing on the side of the van, came to me and asked if I had a Bible in the Italian language. She was happy to buy one when I showed it to her. Another day, I sold a French Bible for a Frenchman who had waited two years to get one."

"I called at a home of a lady who said she would like to have a Bible, but that she was too destitute to buy one. I gave her a New Testament. Afterwards I learned that her husband was in jail for some offence he had committed."

"I called on an elderly gentleman whose wife had just passed away that day. He lamented that he himself was not a saved man. He said, 'Here I am an old man and yet with no hope for the life to come.' I talked a while with the man. He asked me to come back and have a further talk with him. Seeing that he was so concerned about his soul I called on a minister in the neighborhood and asked him to call on the gentleman and seek to bring him into the light."

"On Bruce Peninsula, at a very poor, weather-beaten cottage, the wife and mother told me she would like to buy, but her husband was away. A bright little boy came to the car to look in, and said his mother had no money as his father and another man are in jail for fighting. I tried him with John 3:16, and finding that he could read fairly well, gave him a Bible, with the understanding that he would read it himself, and get his mother to teach him John 3:16."

"A number of the non-English speaking people in this district bought the Scriptures in their own language, including a Ukrainian Testament by a Greek Orthodox Ukrainian woman, a Czechoslovakian Bible, a Bohemian New Testament, etc. One of these women did not have the money in the house for a New Testament and went to a neighbor to borrow what she needed."

Visits made by the colporteurs numbered twenty-eight thousand. Portions sold 34,779 representing cash sales of $13,039.75. These figures show an increase of 6,162 volumes over the circulation of the previous year. But figures alone can never tell the story of the colporteur. They are truly the pilgrims of the Book. They perform their ministry and pass on, but the Book remains to testify of Him who alone can satisfy the longing of the human heart.

Colportage in Foreign Lands

To all who desire to carry Christ's Gospel to heathen peoples, and especially to those interested in some particular mission field, we commend the following list of names and places. It represents those who through the Upper Canada Bible Society are supporting colportage work in foreign lands. The Upper Canada Bible Society has always sought to do not only the work lying ready to its hand within its own area, but to share in the world-wide work of evangelism through the spread of Holy Scripture. In addition to maintaining five colporteurs in its own territory, the support of 25 is undertaken personally by individual contributors, or by Sunday schools or groups of missionary-hearted friends. These colporteurs labour in four of the great mission fields, India, China, Manchuria (Manchuko) and Korea. With some thousand others under the direction of the great Parent Society in London they form a band of consecrated and devoted workers who literally girdle the earth.

The cost of an individual colporteur varies between $60.00 and $125.00 yearly. The Society can arrange to have a colporteur set apart and his personal reports come to those undertaking his support. This makes it possible to provide for a great Christian service in any chosen field. The Parent Society needs more help with this useful and important work, and appeals to all who can help to assist it in answering the cry of a spiritually hungry world. Particulars can be obtained by writing to the Upper Canada Bible Society, 14 College Street, Toronto.

The following is a list of those who have undertaken to support an individual colporteur in some specified mission field:—

Rules of the Upper Canada Bible Society Under Which Grants are Made to Schools and Missions

1. Mission Churches, and Mission Schools among non-English speaking peoples may, at the discretion of the Board, be allowed grants of Scriptures either free or at Missionary Rates subject to rule 2. Missions among English speaking peoples are not in general to be considered fit objects for gratuities of the Society.

2. All applications for grants of Bibles to Sunday Schools or Missions should be made upon the forms heretofore prescribed, which will be furnished on application to the Bible House. The applicant shall state the condition of the School or Mission, the number of scholars and teachers, or of the attendants, as the case may be; the amount of funds at the disposal of the managers; who are its officers; and why it is necessary to make such application. These applications should, in every case, be certified by a Minister of the Gospel, or some person of known respectability, and endorsed by some director or official of the Bible Society.

All applications for grants are considered at the regular Monthly Meeting of the Board on the Third Tuesday of each month.

Life Membership

In the branches of the Upper Canada Bible Society is granted on application to those contributing $25.00 through a local branch

MAKING A WILL . . .

The Upper Canada Bible Society is the local Auxiliary of the British and Foreign Bible Society. It carries on Colportage work within the Province of Ontario and, by special donations from contributors, supports through the Parent Society, missionaries working in India, Korea, China, and elsewhere. It has distributed within the Province since over 14 million copies of Scripture in English and in raised letters for the blind. Its work is world-wide. The Bible Society of Ontario contributes to the work of the Society in other parts of the world.

Client: "Then, I wish to include in my will a legacy for the Bible Society. The Bible Society has at least four characteristics of an ideal bequest."

Solicitor: "Well, what are they?"

Client: "Its purpose is definite and unchanging—to circulate the Scriptures without either note or comment.
